Every freeway, every bridge, every boulevard, every residential street, and even every parking lot. As long as you can drive it from Virginia or Maryland to Washington DC, it's here.

This list is subdivided into 4 parts, each for every side of the square the city is on.

The list is arranged starting from the Western corner and going clockwise.

All freeways and major roads are listed in bold.

Everything else in between the major roads is grouped and listed in quotes with either the city they are in or the neighborhood.

Many smaller roads may only lead to the boundary road or just bridges two major roads but it's nice to see everything you're working with.

Excluded from the list:

- Cal-de-sacs and circles that you can only enter from DC.
- One way roads leading away from DC.
- Blocked/Restricted roads & parking lots.
- Pedestrian Ways.

And now, without further ado:
